St. Bonaventure said, “Christ is the one whose center is everywhere and whose circumference is nowhere.” This is the Wholeness that holds you. You can’t figure this Wholeness out rationally, nor can you control it. All you can do is fall into this Wholeness that holds you when you stop excluding, even the dark parts of yourself.

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Our thanks go to our P&F who hosted Wednesday night’s information session on Protective Behaviours. Protective Behaviours is taught at school, and the opportunity to reinforce this for parents and guardians is a great initiative.

Many of our children will make their First Reconciliation (Penance) this weekend. We thank parents and teachers who have prepared the children for this important moment in their faith lives.

Our Year Five students joined in the festivities after representing the school this morning, in the Liturgical Movement section of the Annual Catholic Schools Performing Arts Festival. They were fantastic. Mrs Kirwan invested a great deal of time ensuring they were ready. Congratulations to you Michelle and to the wonderful Year Five gang on fantastic performances. You do yourselves and our school proud. Thank you, thank you.

St Dominic would have been pleased with today’s celebrations to honour him and the Dominican Order. Children had a great day commencing with Mass followed by the mini-fete, and then tabloid sports. In this the 800th anniversary of the Dominican Order it is a joy and a privilege to honour St Dominic and what he stood for – truth, love and knowledge.

Sunday’s 10am parish mass to celebrate the Feast of St Dominic will be followed by morning tea and we hope for a great turn out.

Best wishes
Mark de Kluyver
Principal
